Cities, culture, nature, experience in Destination Germany

The friendly collaboration with our tour operator colleagues is one of the reasons why group tours in our hotels are so successful.

Germany is an irresistible destination all year round. However, before you can offer your guests a trip, you first have to select the content and programme items. This is why we suggest specially chosen destinations for each region and offer tips for joint activities which, augmented by hotel services, will make your offer unique. This enables you to create programmes that inspire people to travel and offer your participants new holiday experiences all year round.

Our aim is for guests and tour guides to feel at home as soon as they enter the hotels. The warm, friendly atmosphere in the 3-to-4-star establishments, comfortable beds, a richly varied breakfast from the buffet, and dishes inspired by regional cuisine are the hallmarks of all our hotels and partner establishments.

At each hotel, there's a contact partner who's in charge of everything: they advise you, draw up your hotel offer and, together with the hotel team, organise everything on site. The contact partner also takes care of the needs of the guests and tour guides during their stay at the hotel.

All you have to do initially is to inform the contact partner about the travel dates and desired hotel services. Within 24 hours (Mon to Fri), the offer will be on your desk.

Popular tours of the Moselle, Rhine, Hunsrück and Eifel

Alken is surrounded by lush vineyards on the banks of the Moselle. Thurant Castle towers high above the picturesque village; from there, you have a fantastic view of the Moselle valley with its steep slate slopes and sun-drenched wine terraces.

Germany's oldest wine-growing region, between Koblenz and Cochem, is well known for its mild climate and varied attractions. The mixture of fabulous nature, romantic castles and palaces, a centuries-old history and idyllic villages makes it a holiday paradise all year round.

Those who enjoy hiking, cycling or sightseeing will feel just as much at home here as gourmet travellers who want to sample the local wines and regional Moselle cuisine in peace and quiet.

Round trip to Moselle, Rhine and Eifel

With its many bends, meanders, steep vineyards, proud castles and picturesque half-timbered towns, the Moselle offers a unique landscape. The Moselle flows into the Rhine at the Deutsches Eck (German Corner) in Koblenz. Boat trips on the Moselle from Alken to Koblenz or to Cochem are very popular, as is a castle tour on the Rhine. Nowhere else is there such a wealth of romantic palaces, fortresses and castle ruins as in the Upper Middle Rhine Valley World Heritage Site.

A tour through the Eifel leads past Maria Laach Abbey, the German Volcano Museum in Menden and a multitude of deep blue volcanic lakes, the Maaren. The world's highest cold-water geyser, Andernach, is impressive. Every 2 hours it shoots a 60-metre-high water jet into the sky.

Castles and idyllic half-timbered townscapes

Imposing castles such as the imperial castle of Reichsburg Cochem, Pyrmont Castle, the fairy-tale Eltz Castle, as well as Ehrenbreitstein Fortress and many picturesque half-timbered towns, such as Bernkastel-Kues, Traben-Trarbach and Beilstein, are top destinations.

Highlights at the Moselhotel

A delicious piece of cake from the hotel's own pastry shop, accompanied by a pot of coffee or tea, crowns every visit to the Moselle valley. The same goes for a wine tasting in our quaint vaulted cellar: participants get to taste five excellent Moselle wines, ranging from sweet to dry. The local red vineyard peach liqueur (Rote Weinbergspfirsichlikör) is also very popular, whether neat or mixed as a welcome drink. (Moselle wines, spirits & home-made confectionery are on sale at the hotel.)

Bautzen – the 1000-year-old town in Upper Lusatia

Bautzen, known as the town of towers and mustard, is a historical gem with over 1,000 years of history. A stroll through the fully restored Old Town takes you past countless towers, Baroque townhouses, St Peter's Cathedral and Ortenburg Castle. Everywhere in Bautzen, you'll encounter the Sorbian culture of the Slavic minority living here. The Easter Rides and the Easter markets, which are famous for their hand-decorated Sorbian Easter eggs, are real tourist magnets. The rolling mountains and hills of the Upper Lusatian Mountains, one of the largest granite massifs in Europe, stretch not far from Bautzen. The traditional architecture is characterised by Umgebindehäuser, houses built by combining stone and timber construction methods. More than 240 of these well-preserved Upper Lusatian houses still stand in the heritage village of Obercunnersdorf.

Tour of one of Germany's most biodiverse regions

The UNESCO biosphere reserve of the Upper Lusatian Heath and Pond Landscape begins north of Bautzen. Extensive heathland woods and about 1,000 fishponds characterise the region. The traditional rough timber houses of the Erlichthof Rietschen, which includes a museum, handicrafts, a wolf barn and two cafés, bear witness to how people used to live here.

From the Zittau Mountains to Oybin

Germany's smallest low mountain range is the Zittau Mountains in the tri-border region of Germany, Poland and the Czech Republic. The massive sandstone cliffs and the castle and monastery complex on Mount Oybin inspired Romantic painters such as Caspar David Friedrich and Carl Gustav Carus. In the spa town of Oybin, the magnificent murals of the mountain church are a special attraction. Many bridal couples choose it as their wedding venue, which is why it's known as the wedding church (Hochzeitskirche).

Görlitz – a real jewel

Many say that Görlitz is the most beautiful city in Germany. It survived the Second World War almost unscathed – a veritable picture book of architecture thus awaits you on the German-Polish border. Buildings dating from the Late Gothic to the Renaissance, Baroque, Wilhelminian and Art Nouveau periods bear witness to the long history of this once prosperous trading town. In addition to going on a walking tour of the city, a driving tour of the Wilhelminian districts is also well worth it.

Bad Reichenhall – breathtaking Berchtesgadener Land...

Bad Reichenhall, the city of salt, is located in Berchtesgadener Land and is famous for its brine springs and brine baths. It's framed by the two local mountains Predigtstuhl and Hochstaufen, an eastern spur of the Chiemgau Alps. The heart of the spa and alpine town is the Royal Spa Park with the graduation tower and the Old Royal Spa House with its curative AlpenSole Kneipp brine pool.

Throughout the year, spa concerts given by the Bad Reichenhall Philharmonic Orchestra take place in the Spa Park, where the music mingles with the gentle lapping of the water.

Excursions to the city of Mozart, Salzburg, 15 kilometres away, hikes through the Berchtesgaden National Park, boat trips on the famous Königssee and Chiemsee lakes make this region a paradise for excursions all year round.

Sightseeing tour of Salzburg

Anyone who visits the city of Mozart will succumb to the charm of this unique destination. Landscape and architecture, art and culture, tradition and modernity meet in a very small space. The city's fortresses and castles, such as Hohensalzburg Fortress, date from the Middle Ages to the Baroque period and, together with the imposing Salzburg Cathedral, delight every visitor. The narrow streets and wide squares of the Old Town district are a UNESCO World Heritage Site.

Lake Chiemsee – Berchtesgaden National Park – Lake Königssee

Lake Chiemsee is Bavaria's largest lake and a real natural gem in the Chiemgau region, together with the surrounding moors, alpine pastures and idyllic landscapes. In the middle of Lake Chiemsee lies the famous Herreninsel island with the royal castle of the fairy-tale king Ludwig II. Again, the smaller Fraueninsel island attracts visitors with its varied cuisine and Benedictine monastery.

The fjord-like Lake Königssee in the Berchtesgaden National Park (UNESCO Biosphere Reserve) is a majestic sight. With its high mountains, deep valleys and crystal-clear mountain rivers, it's a paradise for hikers and nature photographers. The emerald-green lake is surrounded by steep rock faces of the Alps and presents an impressive backdrop with the mighty Mount Watzmann east face. A trip by electric boat to the Baroque pilgrimage church of St Bartholomew and a visit to the historic inn is extremely popular with guests all year round.

Munich – Baroque splendour and Bavarian charm

Start your tour at Nymphenburg Palace, with its magnificent architecture and enchanting park.

Then head into the city to Karlsplatz (Stachus) square that forms the entrance to Munich's downtown shopping area with the Karlstor gateway. From here, it's only a few minutes' walk to The Church of our Lady (Frauenkirche). With its two high onion domes, it's the emblem of the city. Marienplatz square, with its magical carillon in the town hall tower, and St Peter's, Munich's oldest church, are further highlights.

Museum fans should allow time to visit the Munich Residenz and the Pinakothek art museums. Everyone can refuel themselves with a stroll through the Viktualienmarkt, the local food market, or a meal at the famous Hofbräuhaus.

If the weather's nice, go on a trip to the delightful English Garden!

The royal castles of Neuschwanstein and Linderhof

Ludwig II's dream castle, with its magnificent surrounding landscape, once served as the model for Tchaikovsky's Swan Lake ballet. The interior design is based on German knightly legends and the musical world of Richard Wagner. The tour continues through the scenically diverse Graswang Valley to Linderhof, Ludwig II's smallest castle. Here, you can visit the castle, the Moorish Kiosk and the Venus Grotto. The entire complex forms a charming combination of French garden and palace architecture and Bavarian landscape.

5-Lake Tour in Upper Bavaria

It takes about 20 minutes by car to reach the five lakes – Ammersee, Starnberger See, Pilsensee, Wörthsee and Wesslinger See. The typical Bavarian hilly moraine landscape is a popular holiday and excursion destination in Upper Bavaria. The trip includes a visit to the holy mountain of Andechs and a tour of its monastery church. A boat trip on Lake Starnberg rounds off the idyllic day.

Nymphenburg Castle

Nymphenburg Castle is one of the great royal palaces of Europe, its width of 632 metres surpassing even that of Versailles Palace. The Baroque castle has a 180-hectare palace park. Four park castles and a palace rondel together form an impressive ensemble. At the Marstall Museum, visitors can marvel at the most important court carriage collections in the world.

Diversity between Dusseldorf, Cologne and the Bergisches Land

Combine unusual destinations in the Rhineland, Ruhr region and Bergisches Land region to create new trips: a relaxing boat trip on the Rhine, sightseeing in Dusseldorf and Cologne, shopping in the cities, a foray through Dusseldorf's Old Town, and the longest bar in the world. What would you like to offer your guests?

It's not just the cities that are charming – from Hilden there are all kinds of things to experience and visit in every direction: visits to imposing castles, palaces and edifices in the Rhineland; industrial culture in the Ruhr region; human history in the Neander Valley, where Neanderthal 1 was found; idyllic landscapes in the Bergisches Land. With its 12 reservoirs and lakes, it's regarded as the region with the most reservoirs in Europe and is a paradise for hikers, cyclists and nature-lovers.

Magnificent castles, fabulous parks

Benrath Palace, built in the late French Rococo style, is an impressive sight with its huge park. It's dominated by a 470-metre-long mirror pond. A circular path leads past katsura trees, sequoias, bald cypresses and sickle firs. The three museums in the castle display, among other things, a representative collection of furniture and porcelain.

In Jüchen, in the midst of a picturesque landscape garden, lies moated Dyck Castle. Exotic shrubs and 200-year-old groves of trees make the park a special feature throughout Europe. Themed and pattern gardens in the entrance area alternate with avenues and shady forest paths. The castle attracts thousands of enthusiastic plant connoisseurs, garden lovers and lifestyle fans to the park every spring. You should definitely allow time for a guided tour of the palace during your visit.

Industrial culture in the Ruhr region

The Ruhr region, known as the Ruhrpott, has around 3,500 industrial monuments that bear witness to its eventful past, such as the Zollverein Coal Mine Industrial Complex, a UNESCO World Heritage Site. On a guided tour, you can learn all about the mining, processing and loading of coal.

The Villa Hügel in Essen, with 269 rooms and a well-tended park, is also worth seeing. It was not only the business residence of the Krupp family, but also a place where emperors, kings, politicians and heads of government from all over the world were once guests at receptions and festivities.

Chemnitz – at the foot of the Ore Mountains

An interesting mix of modern, history, tradition, countryside & art

It's all possible, starting from Chemnitz: trips to Dresden, Leipzig, Saxon Switzerland, the Ore Mountains (Erzgebirge), the Vogtland region, the Czech Republic and the many majestic castles and romantic palaces. The tours of the Ore Mountains lead through gently undulating landscapes. In Seiffen, Meissen, Annaberg-Buchholz and the many other local villages, the art and traditions of the Ore Mountains come alive. Allow time for a trip on the narrow-gauge railway near Dresden or the Pressnitztalbahn museum railway, or take a ride on Germany's oldest cable railway, from Oberwiesenthal up to the summit plateau of Mount Fichtelberg. From here, you have a fantastic view of the central Ore Mountains and Bohemian low mountain range.

Trips to Dresden and Leipzig

Wherever you go in Dresden, you can feel the 800-year history of this magnificent, imposing city on the River Elbe. Top attractions include the Zwinger palatial complex and gardens, the Church of Our Lady (Frauenkirche), the Brühl Terraces, the Green Vault and the imposing Dresden Castle. Then, of course, there's Baroque Palace Moritzburg and its extensive park, with ponds, canals and gardens. Don't forget to allow time for a trip to the Saxon Switzerland National Park too!

Leipzig attracts many music-lovers and culture enthusiasts. Notable destinations include the Bach Museum, Old Town Hall, St Nicholas Church and St Thomas Church, the Leipzig Monument to the Battle of the Nations and the Grassi Museum. The Leipzig Panometer and Leipzig Zoo are also well worth a visit.

UNESCO World Heritage Ore Mountain Mining Region/Krušnohoří

Get to know the beautiful Ore Mountain Mining Region/Krušnohoří, with 17 sites on the German side and five on the Czech side. Together they present a picture of a historical cultural landscape shaped by mining. Visit Oelsnitz/Ore Mountains, the Annaberg mining area, the mining area of Freiberg, the silver town, and the historic Old Town of Marienberg. In their entirety, the selected monuments and the natural and cultural landscapes embody the most important mining areas and different eras of Saxon-Bohemian ore mining. Each site comprises various individual objects or landscapes, around 400 of which are on the Saxon side.
